

Job Posting

Clinical Massage Therapist needed for neuromuscular and sports massage therapy practice in Sandy Spring and Buckhead.

We are a fast growing, therapist-owned, clinic helping people feel and perform better through specific and consistent massage therapy. Our business model allows for better pay and more autonomy for massage therapist to practice on the medical level and receive appropriate pay for their hard work and expertise. Although experience is preferred, the owner is willing to train the professional who has an eager desire to become the best in the industry. We are creating a brand that will grow beyond Atlanta and provide career paths that could include clinic ownership.

Overview of the role:

- You will communicate professionally as the main point of contact with patients from check-in to check-out maintaining your calendar and rebooking.
- You will deliver consistent specific massage therapy as needed by the patient's current condition or injury to include assessment, treatment, after-care instructions and follow up.
- You will possess the skills and training required to address trigger points, adhesions, entrapments, and chronic muscle shortness.
- You will have certifications in, or be willing to learn neuromuscular therapy, sports massage, trigger point release, active isolated stretching, and active release.
- You will provide subsequent maintenance massage sessions, after the patient is out of crisis, which will last from 60 minutes to 2 hours and could include Swedish relaxation, pre and post event sports massage, pregnancy, and deep-tissue massage.

Job Responsibilities:

- Arrive early and be ready to work - always being punctual and professional.
- Keep the facility sanitary and prepared for yourself and other therapists.
- Provide massage in 6.5 hour shifts with 15 minutes between each appointment.
- You will manage your calendar, rebook appointments, follow up with patients and communicate directly with patients.
- Your goal will be a 100% fully pre-booked schedule.
- You will be responsible for collecting payment from the patient and updating records and notes directly related to your appointments.
- You may be asked to provide house/event calls to VIP, celebrity, and professional athletes after signing nondisclosure and noncompete agreements.

If this sounds like the opportunity that you have been waiting for, send an email to tell us more about you. We have a limited number of positions available with income potential above $70,000 annually. Info@bodymedics.com